

Top 5 Sarcastic Responses

to comments made about
Guaranteed Issue Health Insurance

Caution!!! Requires a sense of humor

Comment: I don't like guaranteed issue plans with limited benefits.

Response: Guaranteed Issue can help when no one else will. I bet you don't like Santa Claus or the Tooth Fairy either.

Comment: Only $1,000 per day? What if the bill is $20,000

Response: Good Point! It's better if your client get absolutely nothing.

Comment: I'm suspicious of companies that pay high commissions.

Response: O.K. We'll pay YOU less.

Comment: I would never sell a limited benefit plan to one of my clients.

Response: You're right. It's better to leave your clients bare ass naked.

Comment: I'm old fashioned. I don't like personalized online enrollment tools.

Response: Fair enough. You probably resisted color television and the remote control also.

O.K.

All kidding aside, our Guaranteed Issue Health Plans are not for everyone. But they may help when no one else will.

So, whether a client can't qualify for, can't afford or wants to supplement major medical, our Guaranteed Issue health plans fit a critical need in the Health Market.

Of course... there are no medical questions.

And did we mention? We pay really well.

So get rid of your preconceptions and judge for yourself.
